A Member of the State Bar.)

On January 29, 2013, respondent Elizabeth M. Karnazes filed a motion for a further extension of time to pay disciplinary costs. The State Bar opposes the motion. The financial declaration attached to respondent's motion is not signed. However, the statements made in the motion regarding respondent's financial difficulties were made under penalty of perjury. The court finds that good cause has been shown for an extension. The costs are to be paid in two equal installments with respondent's annual State Bar membership fees for the years 2014 and 2015. If respondent fails to pay an installment when due, the remaining balance is due and payable immediately. The payment of costs remains enforceable both as provided in Business and Professions Code section 6140.7 and as a money judgment.
